Internet Use Agreement

All Internet users should be aware that the library cannot monitor all Internet activity and is not responsible for site content. Filters in use at the library meet the standards set forth in the Children's Internet Protection Act. However, no filter is 100% effective in eliminating access to objectionable material. Filters are not meant as a substitute for parental supervision. As with other library materials, restriction of a child's access to the Internet is the responsibility of the parent or legal guardian. All Internet users must sign below indicating that they have read the Internet use policy and agree to its conditions. Those patrons under age 18 who wish to access the Internet through this library must also obtain the signature of their parent or legal guardian.

Internet Use Policy

Appropriate Use:

Internet resources may only be used for legal purposes. Examples of unacceptable purposes include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Harassment of other users
- Libeling other users
- Destruction or damage to equipment, software, or data belonging to the Library, Network, or other users
- Disruption or unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications
- Unauthorized copying of copyrighted material
- Violation of computer system security
- Unauthorized use of computer accounts, access codes, or network identification numbers assigned to others
- Use of computer communications facilities in ways that unnecessarily impede the computing activities of others

Sanctions:

Violations of these policies will be dealt with in a serious and appropriate manner. Illegal acts involving computing resources may be subject to prosecution by local, state, or federal authorities.

Disclaimer:

Since the Internet is a global electronic network, there is no control by this library or by the SAILS Library Network over its uses or content. The library and network staff cannot control the availability of information links, which often change rapidly and unpredictably. Not all sources on the Internet provide accurate, complete, or current information. The library and the SAILS network assume no responsibility for any damages, direct or indirect, arising from use of its Internet resources.

By signing below I indicate that I have read and agree to abide by the above policy.
